- Love beautiful vistas: where I can see for miles, hence hiking, backpacking, and taking lots of scenic pictures.
- Love the solitude and forces of nature: high in glacier formed gorges and fiords, runoff water formed canyons, the bluffs above ocean beaches and the wind sweep plains of open spaces.
- Experiencing museums, galleries, and cultures: to savor other people’s lives, passions and creations, and using my intuition for sense making and interpretation.
- Love connecting people’s dreams: to their achievements, their goals coupled with their struggles and ultimate learnings and joy.
- Love seeing and experiencing through others’ lens: hear others experiences in life and the world
- Intimacy: one-on-one conversations and learn their energy/passion and share insights
- Enjoy being engaged in current events: news analysis to photojournalism to understand world events and implications.
- Doing tai chi: in majestic places with our sun low on the horizon when Earth’s colors are magnified to the point when the sky darkens, and the stars come out.

Love simply being me!
